(Copyright, 1898, by W. R. Hearst.) LONDON, Nov. 21.—The infant son of the Duke and Duchess of Marlborough was christened to-day in the Chapel Royal of St. James's Palace. The Rev. Edgar Sheppard, sub-dean, officiated.
The sponsors included Lord Londonderry, Lord Camden and Lady Blandford, the latter acting as proxy for Mrs. Belmont. The child received the name of Ivor Charles.
The service was fully choral, the hymns being, "O, Father, Thou Who Has Created All" and "In Token That Thou Shalt Not Fear."
The chapel was charmingly decorated.
The child's christening robe was of antique point d'Alençon over white satin, the back of the gown being tucked and ruffled. On each side of the front were small rosettes of white linen bobbin lace.
A beautiful lace cap to match and a handsome cloak of ivory satin trimmed with embroidered lisse were worn with the robe.

The child christened yesterday is the second son of the Duke and Duchess of Marlborough, the first having been christened in November, 1897, as John Albert Edward William Churchill and by birth enjoying the title of the Marquis of Blandford.

BERLIN LOTTERY CHEATS RUSSIANS.
Fraudulent Tickets Smuggled Across the Frontier in Great Quantities and Sold.

Berlin, Nov. 21.—A lottery swindle of large proportions has just been discovered by the police here. An enterprising gentleman named Lipschutz started, for his own profit, a lottery under the name of the First Danzig Money Lottery. Lipschutz resided on the Russo-Polish frontier, and had the lottery tickets printed in Berlin, whence they were smuggled in, big parcels over to Russia. Here they were distributed and sold by special agents. This four series of 10,000 tickets of a total value of 262,000 marks, found ready buyers, and the Berlin police put an abrupt stop to the industry. The ticket holders regularly received the list of the winners, from which it appeared simply that their numbers had been drawn, and suspicion was thereby for a time averted.

ITALY AND FRANCE
MAKE IT UP.
Italian Minister Explains That French War Ship Visited Raheita by Previous Arrangement.

Rome, Nov. 21.—In the Chamber of Deputies to-day the Minister of Foreign Affairs, Admiral Canavaro, replying to a question, said that Italy's right to the port of Raheita, on the west shore of the Straits of Bab-el-Mandeb, had never been questioned by anybody.
The recent visit of a French war ship and the landing of French sailors there was only a momentary stay of the French in the neighborhood of the Italian ports.
But, the Minister continued, the matter had already been arranged between France and Italy in the most amicable manner and Italy remains, as heretofore, in possession of the coast as far south as Ras Dumera, south of which is French territory.

been left at Camp McKinley to look out for the tents.
The following deaths are reported: Private Burton Woodcock, Company G, First typhoid; and Private George Cowles, Red Cross Corps, First New York, and Private

Czar May Help the Bonapartes.
Vienna, Nov. 21.—It now transpires that when Count Muraviev was in the capital he sounded certain of the Austro-Hungarian statesmen as to their attitude toward the pretensions of Prince Louis Napoleon to the French throne. It is said that his hosts entirely declined to commit themselves in any way on this subject, but that they did not affect the significance of the fact that it was broached by so cautious a diplomatist as the Russian Minister. It would seem to indicate that, if Prince Louis were successful, he might look pretty confidently for the support of the Czar.

GIRL CHANGED TO HER OWN SISTER.

Stricken by a "Fairy-Blast," Mary Suddenly Became Ellen.

A STRANGE SUPERSTITION.

Servant Girl in Limerick Took on the Speech of Her Absent Relative in Limerick.

LIMERICK, Nov. 21.—A strange case of superstition has been brought to light here. It is what may be called a local adaptation of the transmigration-of-souls idea and goes under the local name of "fairy blast."

The symptoms of this "fairy blast" are that the person affected ceases for a time to be himself or herself, and becomes somebody else, very frequently a relative or friend. The following instance will hardly be believed, yet it was the experience of a lady living in George's street, Limerick, with a servant girl in her employment. One morning the mistress encountered the servant, whose name was Mary, found her speech took the form of an unmistakable Yankee twang. Mary knew there was something the matter with her, and to account for it asked in the same strange accent:

"Didn't you hear of it, ma'am?"
"Hear what?" replied her astonished mistress.
"Didn't you hear," was the answer, "that I've got the 'fairy blast,' and I am not Mary now? I'm my sister Ellen."
This sister had been absent in America for some time, and the lady, while grasping the meaning of the altered speech, was considerably puzzled to know what had come over her slavey. The damsel, however, hastened to relieve her mistress's anxiety by the assurance, conveyed in perfect seriousness:

"I expect to be myself again in a few days, ma'am, but I'm Ellen now, and not Mary."

She kept her word, and just when the household had come to regard her as it should, for a lunatic asylum she became again, remarking that the "blast" was over.

ENGLISH WELCOME AWAITS OUR SHIPS.

Portsmouth's Mayor Would Be Glad to Receive a Visiting Yankee Squadron.

London, Nov. 21.—In consequence of rumors that a squadron of American war ships is to visit Portsmouth, the Mayor of that place has written to the United States Embassy promising to give the Americans a cordial welcome.
Henry White, the United States Charge d'Affaires, in reply, has thanked the Mayor of Portsmouth for his courteous letter, which he will not fail to transmit to Washington. Mr. White, however, added:

"I have not yet received information of the visit, but my Government will not fail to be gratified by the knowledge that such a welcome awaits our squadron in the event of a visit."

last brought suit against some money lenders, has been awarded £1,000.

ing, asserted that while she was in America

BAND OF FEMALE BURGLARS CAUGHT

Paris Police Make a Round-Up of a Petticoated Quintet.

PARIS, Nov. 21.—The Paris police have succeeded in arresting a quintet of female burglars who for the past few weeks have been carrying out a series of daring and successful burglaries in this city, and whose track the police have had the greatest difficulty in following. Among the women arrested are the two moving spirits of the band, Henrietta Cervol and Louisa Volney.

At first the female burglars confined themselves to robbing houses where the booty promised to be remunerative, and it is believed that their plunder exceeds the value of $15,000.

A few days ago, however, the women paid a surreptitious visit to the apartments of a former friend of Henrietta Cervol, where they picked up property worth about $190. Unfortunately for the criminals, their chief, Henrietta, being something of a coquette, applied a fine piece of curiously embroidered yellow silk to the corage of her own dress.

Yesterday the owner of the silk saw it on Lieu. Cervol and had the robber chief dragged to the police station. Later in the afternoon the other members of the band were arrested.

USURER SEIZED A DEAD MAN'S BED.

Whereupon Deceased's Relatives Burned the Money Lender.

VIENNA, Nov. 21.—A few days ago a clerk named Ladislaus Klodecki died at Sanok, in Galicia, leaving an aged mother and a three-year-old daughter unprotected.
He also left a debt of $20 due to a usurer named Nathan Lieber.

As soon as he heard of his debtor's death, Lieber obtained power to seize the contents of the house and thus secure the value of the money lent. He entered the room where the deceased was lying and removed all the furniture from the room.
He even took the corpse from the bed and threw it on the ground in order to be able to take the bed away. The wreaths laid around the dead were seized, and a valuable ring drawn off the dead man's finger.

Lieber's act so enraged the relatives and friends of the deceased that after removing the corpse they locked up the heartless usurer in the room, and setting fire to the house, burned him alive.

PRINCE HONORS DEAD SAILORS.

Henry of Prussia Unveils a Statue in China to the Memory of a Lost Cruiser's Crew.

Shanghai, Nov. 21.—Prince Henry of Prussia unveiled to-day the monument to the officers and sailors of the German third-class cruiser Ilia, which was lost in a typhoon on July 23, 1896, north of the Shan-Tung Promontory.

The ceremony was very impressive. A large force of German sailors and marines was present, with American, British and Austrian sailors. The Shanghai Volunteers were also represented.

The Rev. Mr. Hackmann, the German chaplain, made a short address, after which the German Consul formally transferred the monument to the Chairman of the Municipal Council of Shanghai.

Prince Henry of Prussia then spoke briefly, and at the close of his speech the troops marched past.

In the disaster to the Ilia all but ten of her company perished. A dispatch from Chee Foo, China, at the time, reported that, according to the tale of the survivors, the officers and men were three cheers for Emperor William as the Ilia went down.

A PIOUS NOTE.

Sanctimonious Thief Wrote That He Hoped to Save Something by a Night's Sinning.

London, Nov. 21.—A sedate burglar of this city has had an experience with a sanctimonious burglar. On Sunday evening this burglar broke into a house while its owner was attending chapel. On his return the owner of the house found the place ransacked.
On going into the kitchen he found this letter:

"Sir—Sorry I could not stop, but we may meet on a future occasion. We have both been praying—you that you might be saved from sin, and me that out of the proceeds of this night's sinning I might save something."

Their Good.

Santiago de Cuba, Nov. 21.—The United States transport Reina de los Angeles returned to-day from her tour along the northern coast of the Province of Santiago, after landing medical supplies at Gibara. Her officers report that the people in that district are taking kindly to the new compulsory vaccination order, recognizing that it is for their good.
There is practically no sickness among the troops of Colonel Hood's command, not are there any signs of smallpox.
The Reina de los Angeles brought a large quantity of Mauer rifles from Guantanamo, which will shortly be shipped North.

ROLLS OF CLOTH IN WIFE'S TRUNK.

London, Nov. 21.—John Remmen, a tailor, of Philadelphia, who was arrested at Liverpool last Saturday on an extradi-tation warrant charging him with the larceny of cloth and the embezzlement of $500, was arraigned in the Bow Street Police Court to-day and was remanded for a week.
The detective who took the prisoner into custody testified that he found twenty-three wife and also a receipt for $21, signed by the Atlas Storage Company, of Philadelphia. The prisoner made no defence.

FILIPINOS DRIVE OFF SPANISH.

Manila, Philippine Islands, Nov. 21.—Passengers who arrived here to-day by the steamer Adelante report that two Spanish gunboats recently visited Sorsogon and fired three shells into the town, claiming that the insurgents there refused to lower their flag when ordered to do so.
On the insurgents showing fight, it is added, the Spanish gunboats left hurriedly.
The shells did little damage.

CONVICT IS HEIR OF EARL, HE SAYS.

Demands Title and Estates of Lord Kinnaird.

ing an Aged Couple Five

CAST OFF BY FAMILY AND FRIENDS

Woman Says He Was a 'Scapegoat Son and Was Cast Off for Marrying a Servant.

MONTREAL, Nov. 21.—Walter McWhirrell, a life convict in the Kingston penitentiary, declares that he is the son of the late Lord Kinnaird, and will assert his right to the estates and title of the Scotch earl.

McWhirrell was convicted of murder for having killed an aged couple named Williams near Port Credit five years ago.

The authority for the statement that Mc-Whirrell is Lord Kinnaird's heir is a woman, who says she is the convict's wife.
A woman who said she was Mrs. G. M.
Truman, of Mount Hope Cottage, No.
183 Queen street, North, Hamilton, began to intercede with the Minister of Justice at Ottawa a fortnight ago for the pardon of McWhirrell, who she asserted, was a relative of hers, and was connected with a distinguished family in the old country.
It is also known that a woman of the same name has been in constant communication with the prisoner at Kingston. Mrs.
Truman is out of town, but from her friends and neighbors it was learned that she claimed to be by right Lady Kinnaird, the wife of the rightful heir to great estates in Scotland, who is Walter McWhirrell.

Mrs. Truman's story is that Walter Mc-Whirrell was the son of a Scotch gentleman of quality; that he ran away and joined the army. Afterward he married her, a servant on his father's estate, and was cut off by his kindred. Through the death of Lord Kinnaird, she alleges, he has become the rightful heir to the title and estate.
Mrs. Truman figures in the Hamilton City Directory as Mrs. Gertrude Truman, widow of Ransom Truman, whom she appears to know, for it is supposed he was the successor of McWhirrell. The woman told her friends the story of how McWhirrell came to commit the crime of which he was found guilty.

Williams, she says, insulted McWhirrell, who had gone to his house to look for work, and the woman, McWhirrell struck and accidentally killed the old man. Then he killed Mrs. Williams, who had been a witness of her husband's murder.

A NEW KNEIPP HAS ARISEN.

Germany Has Another Clerical Healer, Named Pastor Felke, Who Is Overrun with Patients.

Frankfurt, Nov. 21.—A second Kneipp has arisen in Germany. The new clerical healer is Pastor Felke, a man with a paternalistic beard, though not more than forty years old. The centre of his ministrations is a beautiful rural parish in Reipolten, Rheinland Prussia.
The number of Pastor Felke's patients already runs up into the thousands, and those who seek his aid come not only from the Fatherland, but also from foreign countries.

Early next year an institution will be erected for the treatment of the sickle patients, especially for those who suffer with lung diseases.

Dog-Bitten Warriors from Hindostan

Paris, Nov. 21.—The Pasteur Institute is crowded with patients from British regi-

The largest party of hydrophobic patients consists of a sergeant and nine men belonging to the Fourth Dragoon Guards, stationed in Punjab.
Rabies are very common in India. Some four years ago an attempt was made to found a Pasteur institute in India. Twenty thousand dollars were subscribed, but the scheme hangs fire.

FOUND INNOCENT
AFTER 30 YEARS.

Italian Convicted of Murder Set Free by the Tardy Confession of the Real Assassin.

Rome, Nov. 21.—After having served thirty years at hard labor for a crime he did not commit Giovanni Pina returned to-day to Fiumicino Maggiore, the home of his youth. But few of the villagers recognized in the old, broken-down graybeard the vigorous young man who three decades ago was convicted of the crime of murder.
He was charged with killing a young nobleman. The real murderer, who was shielded by a band of brigands no longer able to abide his conscience, surrendered himself to the authorities a few weeks ago, and an investigation was ordered at once, resulting in this tardy vindication of Pina.

NORTHERN COAST

driven into her pier by the violence of the storm and so badly damaged that she must come here for repairs.

Lays for Automobiles.

Paris, Nov. 21.—A law has been passed compelling drivers and conductors of auto-cars to go through a course of regular training before the Compagnie Generale des Voitures will insure them with their vehi-established at Aubervilliers, and consists of a course six miles in length, in which every possible curve and gradient, and even different kinds of pavement are represented.
